

The Style: Monochrome

For something highly individual, Oxford wallpaper in charcoal by Andrew Martin is a guaranteed talking point. It's covered in chalk effect scribbles of Shakespearean quotes such as, 'Be not afraid of greatness' and, 'Why then the world's mine oyster, which I with sword will open'. The design is also available in grey and sand colourways from a range at Brightwell Interiors in Ipswich, Suffolk (01473 611130)
