

THE ULTIMATE IN INTERIORS

For stylish interiors in a stunning setting, a visit to Brightwell Interiors' new showroom near Ipswich is sure to inspire you. Whether you're looking completely revamp your home or simply add the finishing touches, interior designers Holly and Julie Nicholls can make the most of your budget

Sometimes when you're looking to rework your interior style – or have a project in the home to start from scratch – a trip round an interiors showroom or a flick-through the fabric swatches in-store isn't quite enough to convince you of your new direction. What you'd really like to do is walk round a real home, decorated in the style that you love, by the people you're considering involving in your project. Only then can you really envisage what your revamped interiors could look like.

Brightwell Interiors offers this concept in the stunning setting of a newly-completed barn conversion just outside Ipswich. Nestled in a delightful valley amongst rolling Suffolk farmland, the showroom is easily accessible from around the county, with close links to the A14 and A12, and offers privacy and plenty of parking. Those who take a trip to this spacious and inspiring showcase for the design talents of mother and daughter team Julie and Holly Nicholls will leave brimming full of ideas that they can incorporate into their own home.

'Whether you would like us to rework a property from top to toe or are simply looking from room fragrances and bedlinen to offset your existing style, our new showroom is full of wonderful purchases and unusual ideas to really make your house a home.

With bedrooms, bathrooms, living and dining spaces – as well as a fabulous kitchen crafted by Orwells Furniture, we have designed the barn using the best of local craftsman and tradespeople and dressed it as you would your home to showcase a variety of looks,' explains Julie.
